No Israel? No Messiah.

Know Messiah?

Know Israel.

Then beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, He explained to them the things written about Himself in all the Scriptures.

Luke 24:27

For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me; for he wrote about Me.

John 5:46

This book is dedicated to Joyce Elaine Hill
who served faithfully
as an educator for decades.
May her vision endure for years to come —
simple crafts combined with the compelling word of our King.

In the United States, 89% of Bible-believing young people are leaving their faith after college. The average graduate is $37,000 in debt, and one in four graduates with a disease due to immoral behavior.

Half of all Jewish college students will experience anti-semitism, and on campus violence increases every year.

We must ensure the spiritual, moral, intellectual, economic, and physical safety of the next generation. If we fail to teach our children to bless Israel, we are cursed already.

This book is primarily designed for Sunday School teachers. For years, we have spoken about David and Goliath; now it is time to learn that the Valley of Elah is a real place, with real people. Those people are Jewish, their land is Israel, and the Almighty proclaims irrevocably, in Genesis 15:18, that He, Himself, will be cut in two, if they do not possess the land from the Nile to the Euphrates.

The Jewish people are the Fathers.
Christians, are their children. You will know!

Pray It.

The Father looks for one child who will stand in the gap and pray (Ezekiel 22:30 ). Great teachers understand that prayer is the most powerful form of worship.

Dig It. Dance It. Make It. Sing It.

Wise hearted teachers train consecrated students who love the Father heart, mind, soul, and strength. It is time to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children and the children to the fathers

Any student when fully taught will look like their teacher.
Luke 6:40

Find It.

Some teachers read their scriptures at least an hour each day. They know where to find the good news anywhere in our beloved Book.

Map It.

Some teachers don't settle. When they speak of David and Goliath, they teach about the Valley of Elah. They know most of the story of redemption takes place in a Jewish land that belongs in Jewish hands.

What about the Mormon faith?

The Mormon faith asserts that Messiah is savior, but does not proclaim Him as the Almighty. This view of Messiah contradicts scripture that reassures us, "That if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus/Yeshua and believe in your heart that G-d has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved." Romans 10:9

The introduction of their Book of Mormon is a violation of scripture (Revelation 22:18, Deuteronomy 4:2) and stems from Golden Plates which the founder of their religion returned to an angelic being. Hence, the archeology pertaining to their origin is unobtainable.

What about those who practice as Jehovah's Witnesses?

Jehovah's Witnesses do not proclaim Jesus/Yeshua as Almighty. Like the Mormons, they see him as one god among many and thereby fail the litmus test of a believer. "Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of G-d calls Jesus/Yeshua accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost." 1 Corinthians 12:3 Also, this faith does not embrace the idea of Hell despite the fact that the word Sheol appears 65 times in the Tenach/Hebrew scriptures. It is interesting to note that there is no "J" sound in the Hebrew language.

What about Islam and the Muslim beliefs?

Muslims believe in Messiah as a historical figure, the son of Mary, and a prophet. They do not acknowledge His deity. In fact, in the city of Jerusalem, on the Temple Mount, an Arabic inscription on the Dome of the Rock proclaims, "G-d has no son. He neither begets nor is he begotten." These words directly contradict the truth so clearly outlined in the scriptures that "Whosoever denies the Son, the same has not the Father: he that acknowledges the Son has the Father also." 1 John 2:23

Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him. Psalm 2:12

Our G-d is one. The Father has a son. His son is the Messiah. And, you will know.
